

LOST AT SEA.

The Whaler Atlantic in the Breakers

OFF THE GOLDEN GATE.

A Kotten Tub Goes to Pieces in the Waves at Dead of Night.

(Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, December 17.—At 2:30 o'clock this morning the whaling bark Atlantic was driven ashore a mile and a half below the Cliff House, and went to pieces in a few minutes, not a spar remaining standing. The wreck was strewn along the beach three or four miles. About twenty-five men are believed to be lost. The Captain and mate, with a lighter and ten men were saved. At the time of the disaster a dense fog and heavy sea prevailed. The Atlantic left here yesterday afternoon for a cruise in the South Pacific, after which she was to proceed to the north. The Atlantic was an old vessel, having been built in 1851, was 251 tons register and owned by J. and W. R. Wing, of New Bedford, Mass. She was commanded by Captain Warren.

Following is Captain Warren's statement of the wreck: "We were towed out to sea yesterday afternoon. There was a heavy head swell, and the wind currents were so strong that we could not get out of the swell. We let go both anchors, but the sea swept the decks, and was so heavy the anchors could not hold. We dragged ashore and struck at 1:30 A. M. The men were being washed off during all this time by the waves which washed over us. The vessel went to pieces an hour and a half after she struck. There was a very heavy fog and it was pitch dark. We succeeded in saving two boats, but both capsized before getting two boats' length from the ship. The first boat contained H. S. Doty, first mate, Anton Perry, third mate, and four or five of the crew, and that was the last we saw of them. The second boat, which was a life-boat, was carried ashore. During the time the ship remained together the life-saving crew shot a line over the wreck, but they could not pull the rope on board because it became entangled with the floating wreck as the fog was too dense for anything to be seen." The captain and crew number twenty-six persons. Of these only ten are known to have been saved. The remainder are believed to have been drowned.

LATEST DETAILS OF THE DISASTER.

The latest obtainable returns give the number of saved as eleven. Up to a late hour this afternoon not one body has been recovered. It was recognized as a man known as "French Joe." When the Captain left the vessel she was still building up a head sea, and a great swell on the "starboard side" and the bowprit had been carried away. It was high tide at the time and the force of the waves steadily drove the wreck towards shore, and as soon as she reached the point where she struck ground with each breaker she crumbled to pieces. All saved agree in stating that the vessel was so old and rotten that she was unfit for a whaling cruise. A rumor prevailed in the city that a large portion of the crew was intoxicated at the time of the wreck and that twenty-five were down below deck from their intoxication. If this is true it is thought a number of bodies will be found under the hull of the ship. It is also said there was $30,000 in coin on board. There is much doubt expressed as to the number of the crew, as the ill-fated bark when she left port yesterday. The custom house list shows 42, while the captain states there were but 38. The captain and pilots express the opinion that the arrival of night induced the captain of the tug which towed the vessel out to port company with the whaler too soon; for they assert that as flood tide would set in strongly about 10 o'clock the vessel should have been towed to the automatic buoy four miles further out in order to get beyond the inshore sweep of the tide.

Claus F. Kroger, keeper of the life-saving station, says that the first knowledge he had of the disaster was when the captain and half a dozen men made their appearance at the station about 2 o'clock this morning, when he was told that many of the crew were still on the wreck. Rockets were thrown up from the beach as signals, but were utterly useless as the fog was so thick. Finally the wreck was located and endeavors made to rescue the men, but to no avail.

John G. Gallagher and Captain McGregor had signed articles and were to join the Atlantic at Honolulu. Gallagher was to supersede Doty as first mate, and McGregor was going on as master. The sand along the beach was almost entirely hidden from sight by the vast amount of wreckage, consisting of timbers, planks, spars, ropes, all kinds of rigging, boxes, life-boats, crushed into shapeless masses, and countless materials used in the construction of the whaler. The news of the wreck spread rapidly through the city and brought a large crowd to the spot at an early hour, and during the entire day hundreds of people were rushing up and down the beach searching among the wreckage for the bodies of the wrecked sailors and officers. The Coroner and his assistants were early on the scene. "Look there," said he, picking up a piece of plank from the ship's side and pulling the decayed wood to pieces with his fingers, "that ship was not fit to send a dog to sea in."

One of the first persons to go to the scene of the disaster from the city was Major J. T. Blakeney, Superintendent of the Life Saving Service of this district. When asked why the men at the station gave no assistance to the wrecked crew, he said: "It is very unfortunate, and no one regrets it more than we do. It is only fair to say that they did everything that men could do, but their efforts were utterly fruitless. Referring to the rottenness of the ship's timbers, he said: "It seems to me that a rigid and unsparring investigation should be ordered, and those responsible made an example of. Lives are too valuable to be jeopardized in such ships, and in my opinion this is little sort of cold-blooded murder."

The Post this evening editorially says: The wreck of the Atlantic this morning with the loss of over thirty lives, would have been a calamity sufficiently hideous if no human responsibility had been involved in it. But, the horror of the situation is immeasurably heightened by the reflection that the destruction of life could have been lessened if not entirely prevented. The vessel was sent to sea in a condition that was manifestly unsafe. It is a case for the most stern investigation. Whoever was responsible for sending these ill-fated men to their graves, should meet at the full punishment that a too lenient law permits, and the official who allowed a floating coffin to pass inspection should not be overlooked.

THE LIST OF SAVED.

J. Ring, the second officer of the Atlantic, said: "At 10 o'clock I was in my bunk, when the captain called me and said he was going to drop anchor. We were then half a mile from shore in a dead calm, with a heavy swell. At 12 o'clock the second anchor was dropped, and I went back to my bunk. I was sound asleep, when I was awakened by a thud which hoisted me out of the bunk and sent me spinning around on the floor. I was badly jolted, and the vessel was all the while quivering like a building during the earthquake. Just as I got on deck the vessel struck bottom again, and a heavy swell swept the deck, knocking off several men. The scene was a terrible one to witness, but the men held on with a death-grip to ropes, spars or anything they could get hold of." Ring then graphically described how both boats which left the vessel were swamped, his battle with the waves and his rescue. He concluded: "I have seen brave men, but the men held on with a death-grip to ropes, spars or anything they could get hold of." I never saw a vessel break up so in my life. The timbers cracked and were torn to pieces as though they were paper instead of wood."

Andrew M. Look, another of the survivors, said: "I was on board the ship with several others at the time the life-saving crew fired a line out to us, but it was no use. The idea of sending a line out to men when in that kind of a fix with a great sea running all over them! Why in the devil didn't they get out their life-boat and do something?" L. H. Walling, another of the survivors, was badly injured in the gale. He stated that he went to bed between 10 and 11 o'clock last night, at which time, although the vessel was still dragging its anchor, everything was supposed to be all right. He said: "I was about 1 o'clock, I should judge, when I heard the rattling of the anchor chains, and a little while after the vessel struck. I rushed up on deck, but was knocked down by a heavy breaker, which had just broken over the vessel. I came to my feet and jumped into the boat, which they were lowering at the time, but the boat swamped before she had proceeded a length from the vessel, and I was thrown into the boiling sea. Somebody caught hold of me, and although I struggled all my night to get away, I could not do it and gave myself up as a goner. We both sank to the bottom and then the poor fellow—I don't know who it was—released his grasp and I arose to the surface. After being tossed about for some time, I was finally cast upon the shore, where somebody picked me up and carried me out of reach of the waves."

Adolph Sutro was round at an early hour and sent down a quantity of underclothing for the wrecked sailors, besides giving the members of the crew $5 each. John Heenan, a hackman, was returning from the beach with a party of four—two ladies and two gentlemen—this morning at the time of the wreck. He says the heard voices on the beach and drove down. When the true state of affairs was learned, he and his passengers at once proceeded to lend their assistance, and worked there all night. The ladies took off their fine cloaks and kindly wrapped them around the rescued sailors.

Up to midnight no increase had been made to the single corpse of last night, which was taken to the morgue during the day, nor were any more men discovered to have survived the catastrophe.

A Vessel Blown Up.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 17.—The steam whaler "Mary and Helen" took fire this morning, while lying off the works of the Pacific Oil Transportation Company, at the Potrero in the south-east corner of the city. The fire communicated with the magazine of the vessel and an explosion followed, killing the son of Captain Miller and a deck hand, both of whom were on the deck. The vessel was badly damaged, the whole side being blown out.

LATER it has been ascertained that the vessel was owned by the Pacific Tug "Water Witch" who was killed and not his son. The "Witch" had gone to aid the "Mary and Helen."

We Will Forget It When Geronimo Is Hanged.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 17.—A Chronicle's Washington special says: The Secretary of War has written a statement which will be sent to Congress and published in general army orders explaining references made to Miles in his annual report, and including the suppressed orders under which he was acting when he accepted the surrender of the Apaches, and which appeared to have been known to the Secretary when he made up his report. It is considered that such a course will let everybody out of the scrape, and Secretary Endicott would like to have the episode forgotten as soon as possible.

The Plaintiff's Appeal.

SANTA ROSA, Cal., December 17.—The plaintiff's appeal in the case of Mrs. Ellen M. Colton vs. Leland Stanford et al., was filed with the County Clerk last night.

THE COAST.

The Lawless Strikers Commit an Outrage.

THEY ASSAULT STREET-CARS

(Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, December 17.—The strikers on the Geary and Sutter street railroads, while parading this afternoon, attacked several cars on the Polk street branch of the Sutter street road. Three ladies were wounded by rocks, several of the conductors and drivers were hit, and a number of car windows broken. On Larkin street, near Eddy, a number of men ran up behind one of the new conductors and knocked him senseless with a blow on the head. John T. Mid-dleoff, a grimace on the Larkin street branch, was assaulted and badly beaten by a number of men. It is feared that he will lose his left eye, having been struck by a rock. The officials of the street cars have asked the Chief of Police for better protection, and the force of one hundred officers who have been on duty day and night since the commencement of the strike will be increased.

Kelsey and McCord's Preliminary

SAN FRANCISCO, December 17.—The preliminary examination on a charge of murder of James Kelsey and James McCord, Superintendent of the Sutter street railroad, began in the police court today. At the conclusion of the day's proceedings the Judge made an order that Kelsey be released from custody on filing a bond in the sum of $40,000. The prosecution asked that McCord's bail be increased from the present amount of $10,000. The Court thought McCord's bond was sufficiently high and refused to increase it. The case was then continued until to-morrow morning.

Two Roads to San Diego.

SANTA ANA, December 17.—It is now definitely arranged that the Southern Pacific Railroad Company will extend the branch, the Los Angeles and San Diego, from Santa Ana to San Diego. Charles Crocker and other railroad magnates paid this city a visit yesterday for the purpose of getting information on this subject. Their surveys are now being made. The force of the explosion T. & S. P. R. R. people are also getting the right of way to extend their road through to San Diego. This will give a parallel road to San Diego.

A New Manager.

SAN DIEGO, December 17.—It is stated on good authority that Geo. L. Sands will assume the general management of the Atlantic and Pacific railway, and that the general offices will be removed from Albuquerque to San Diego immediately. A committee has been appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to confer with Crocker. A railroad party which will arrive here to-morrow morning for the purpose of making overtures for the extension of the Southern Pacific to this city.

Great Crowds.

SACRAMENTO, December 17.—This afternoon the Pioneers visited the fair in a body. A delegation of railroad men came also with Stephen T. Gage at their head. During the entire afternoon the crowd was so great that there was scarcely room to stir in the pavilion. At a meeting held at the Board of Trade rooms, it was resolved to close the fair to-morrow night and send it on immediately to Chicago. This evening the crowd was larger than ever before.

Bribed to Murder a Family.

COTTONWOOD, December 17.—The young woman arrested by Officer Leino, and charged with robbing and setting fire to the residence of Mrs. Ludwig, has created a sensation by making a confession and implicating several well-known persons in a conspiracy against the life of Mrs. Ludwig and family. She says they promised her $100, and a certain young man was to marry her. She is now in jail.

It Is a Great Room.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 17.—J. G. McCall, the general agent of the New York, Erie and Western Railroad company, who has returned from a visit to Chicago, in speaking of his observations East, said that wherever he went he discovered that there is a great booming up of the Southern part of California, and that the people know more about Los Angeles and adjacent places than they did of San Francisco.

A Fire in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 17.—The ground floor and basement of the four-story frame building, number 917 Mark street, owned by Thomas Doolin and occupied by James Duffy & Co., carpet dealers, was visited by fire this evening, and damaged to the extent of two thousand dollars. Fully insured. Cause of fire unknown.

An Old Miner Killed.

PLYMOUTH, Cal., December 17.—Thos. Griffith, an old pioneer and miner of this county, through a mistake in the signal bell, was run into the pump of the Pacific shaft at this place yesterday, and died this morning from his injuries.

More Juvenile Strikers.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 17.—The district messenger boys, to the number of one hundred, to-day joined the American district messengers in demanding seventy-five cents a day, instead of fifty cents a message.

San Buenaventura Pleased.

SAN BUENAVENTURA, December 17.—The appointment of Judge Ross, of Los Angeles, United States District Judge, and J. Marion Brooks United States District Attorney, is enthusiastically received.

Arrested for the Killing.

HEALDSBURG, Cal., December 17.—Frank Woods was arrested and lodged in jail at this place to-day, for shooting of the Patton boy on Sunday last.

Died from his Wounds.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 17.—Policeman Osgood, who was stabbed by an unknown man Monday morning, died this morning.

HUMBOLDT BAY.

The Lumber Fleet All Bar-bound at that Point.

FURBER, December 17.—There are thirty-seven vessels bar-bound here now loaded with lumber. There are 9,715,000 feet of lumber on board these vessels. The steamers Santa Maria and Humboldt are still bar-bound. The latter attempted to get out yesterday but failed. On Tuesday next a meeting of citizens and business men is to be held to prepare a memorial to Congress asking the immediate improvement of the Humboldt bar. Convincing facts and figures will be given in detail.

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

And Its Relations to the Knights of Labor.

PHILADELPHIA, December 17.—The Record this morning says: An important conference bearing on the relation of the Catholic church to the Knights of Labor in the United States is believed to have taken place here yesterday between Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Corrigan of New York and Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia, at the residence of the latter. A prominent priest said that the question was certainly assuming such proportions and drifting into such channels that the church could not very long ignore it. He referred to the interest taken in the labor movement as exemplified by the heavy vote polled in New York for Henry George and thought Catholics should be advised by their spiritual superiors whether or not it was dangerous to support such movements. Of course, he concluded, no action will be taken by the hierarchy without deliberation and care and if any change is made it will be for the best of the church and the spiritual welfare of its adherents.

A GAS EXPLOSION.

Thirty-five Persons Injured in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, December 17.—The Kokomo, Ind., special reports that gas was struck in well No. 2 at that point to-day and in running a drill the gas was by some means ignited. A terrific explosion followed, and thirty-five persons were more or less injured. The seriously injured are Miss Madlin, Adolphus Pickett, Hon. J. N. Lomp, Mr. Ulster, Blake Ream, Marion Pearce, Ira Lane, John Dailey, Walter Haskett, George Stewart, Joseph Brown and David Frazier. The force of the explosion threw everybody to the ground, which probably explains why the injured are not fatally burned.

Ferdinand of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha and the Bulgarian Crown.

ST. PETERSBURG, December 17.—The Journal de St. Petersburg says: The offer of the Bulgarian throne to Prince Ferdinand, of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, reported to have been made by the Bulgarian deputations which is now visiting European capitals, could not have been made seriously. The pretension of the prince to the throne of Bulgaria, and it is doubtful if anyone would accept the crown under such conditions. It may be that the deputations made the offer tentatively on the part of the present dictators of Bulgaria, in order to throw out the idea of the prince's election to the throne, and to make a demonstration against Russia, reckless of the assertion that no power would oppose the election of Prince Ferdinand to the Bulgarian throne.

A New Yacht.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 17.—The Examiner's Washington special says: Senator Stanford, it is understood, is having plans prepared for a new six-hundred-thousand-dollar yacht, which he proposes having built at San Francisco next spring. The vessel will be a marked departure in ship-building, and will be constructed in accordance with plans submitted by Captain Lundborg, formerly of the Swedish navy. The yacht will be in a sense an experiment. It is expected to have a speed of twenty-four knots an hour. If she proves a success Stanford will turn her over to the Government as a dispatch boat, if desired, at the original price.

The Billiard Match.

CHICAGO, December 17.—Central Music Hall was comfortably filled with lovers of the game of billiards when Slosson and Schaeffer appeared on the platform at 8 o'clock this evening. John W. McCullough, of St. Louis, announced that the game was 300 points, cushion croom, for $2000 a side and gate money. At 9 o'clock the score stood: Schaeffer, 106; Slosson, 81. At the end of 110 minutes the score stood: Schaeffer, 500; Slosson, 430.

Who Is Her Lucky Husband?

ST. LOUIS, December 17.—Mrs. Juliet Cunningham, who was seriously injured some time ago by jumping from a street car on the People's line, which was in imminent danger of colliding with a railroad train at the Fourth and Poplar street crossings, was to-day awarded $25,000 damages.

Perpend?

VIENNA, December 17.—Political correspondence asserts that the Russian Government has sent a telegram to Prince Lobanoff Russian Ambassador here, refusing to his countenance of the candidacy of Prince Ferdinand of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha for the throne of Bulgaria.

Fred Archer's Horses.

LONDON, December 17.—The auction sale of blooded stock belonging to the late Fred Archer, the jockey, is completed at Newmarket. It realized a total of £3855. Chilperic brought £740.

Accepted the Receivership.

CHICAGO, December 17.—Judge Cooley has notified Judge Graham of his acceptance of the receivership.

A Valuable Addition.

The Los Angeles Land Bureau has done a wise thing and made a good business move by securing the services of Mr. J. L. Vignes. This gentleman, who has been so well and favorably known in Los Angeles, will have charge of the French and Spanish departments of the bureau, and as he is a master in these languages, it is needless to say that his services will be invaluable to the Bureau.

EASTERN.

A Big Race Meeting Two Years Hence.

DETROIT POVERTY AND DEATH.

A Town Caves in—Murderers Killed—Interesting News.

(Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., December 17.—The Louisville Jockey Club have completed an arrangement whereby, in the spring of 1889, there will be run at its course a race of a mile and a quarter for a stake of $50,000, perhaps the richest ever run for in America. The conditions are modeled after those of the great English Eclipse stakes. It will require a great many entries to fill the stake of such value, but the terms are such that owners and breeders can well afford to make nominations, forfeits being comparatively light, when the odds are taken into consideration. The first year after the entry the forfeit is only $50; the odds, therefore, are 50 to 100,000. For that time it will be seen that even the place money for second and third places is greater than the value of a great majority of stakes. Should a horse change hands before the event, the nominator still has his chance of large winning since a part of the stake goes to nominators of the three placed horses. The proposed plan was widely discussed at a gathering of horsemen at Lexington yesterday and the day before and Kentucky breeders seemed eager to take advantage of this opportunity for the advancement of their interests. Year by year Kentucky becomes more and more distinctly the center of thoroughbred interest and such stake as this run on her own soil will do much to maintain the supremacy of the state in all equine matters. The stake is to be called the great Kentucky stakes. The entries close January 15, 1887. The following is a summary of the stake of 1889. The great Kentucky stakes to be run in the spring of 1889 of $50,000 for yearlings, two and three-year-olds, on January 1, 1887, $40,000 to winner, $1000 to second and $2500 to third. The nominator of the winner to receive $2000, nominator of the second to receive $1000, and nominator of the third to receive $500, by subscription of $50 each, the only for- feit if declared by January 1, 1888: $150 for July 1, 1888; $500 if declared by January 1, 1889, and $500 for horses left in after that date. All declarations void unless accompanied with the money. Three hundred entries to fill or the race may be declared void at the option of the club. Weight for age one mile and a quarter.

A TERRIBLE SCENE

Of Poverty, Disease and Death in Detroit.

DETROIT, Mich., December 17.—A horrible scene of poverty and death has been discovered in a dilapidated frame house at No. 150 Woodbridge street, in this city. The house was occupied by a stone cutter named Thos. Grears, with his wife and children. Mrs. Grears died last Sunday and was buried Wednesday, her babe being cared for by the neighbors. Since the funeral the house has been closed and nothing was seen of Grears or his children. Becoming suspicious that something was wrong the neighbors this morning broke in the door and found the children on the same bed with their father, who was crazy drunk. All the children were down with a virulent attack of scarlet fever. A girl three years old was dead; a boy eight years old was struggling and dying, and the other children were so ill they could not move. There was neither fire nor food in the house. The poor commission will do everything possible to relieve the children.

A Town Caves In.

SHEKANDAW, Pa., December 17.—Between 3 and 4 o'clock this morning, people living along West Coal street, in the northwestern section of this borough, were aroused by a cracking noise and the swaying of the houses, resembling a series of successive shocks of earthquake. The sensation was produced by a cave-in, which took down fully four acres of that section of the town, upon which stands upwards of fifty houses. The greatest alarm prevailed from 3 o'clock until after daylight. After the surface sank the houses swayed and tilted, and many of the people, many of them, with children in their arms, ran in search of places of safety, while men collected portable property and conveyed it from the doomed district. The surface settled from two to four feet and damaged property to the extent of from $50,000 to $75,000. The cave-in was caused by the robbing workings of Kohinoor colliery, which is located under that portion of the town.

A Murderer Promptly Lynched.

ATLANTA, Ga., December 17.—Thursday morning after midnight the house of John Swilling was burned down. Inside were Mr. Swilling, his wife and children, all of whom were burned to death. Francis Saunders was arrested, and confessed that he had crushed in the skulls of the sleepers, saturated the bed clothes with coal oil, and applied a match and left. The citizens seized the murderer and carried him off to lynch him.

Murderers Killed.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., December 17.—Trotter Jones and Dick Bullock, two of the four negroes who a few days ago murdered George Taaf in the Choctaw Nation, because he discovered them killing his cattle, and who were released on bail, were caught by a mob Wednesday, taken to the scene of the murder and riddled with bullets, each receiving not less than forty shots. Sandy Smith and George Moss, the other murderers, are now in jail awaiting trial.

Struck a Herd of Cattle.

SALT LAKE, Utah, December 17.—A train on the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad, due here this evening, ran into a band of cattle near Delta not far from the line this morning at 3:30, tipping the engine over, killing Engineer Walsh of Gunnison and Fireman McConnell, of Springfield, Colo. Several passengers were hurt, but none seriously.

THE BOTANICAL GARDEN.

Good Land Generously Offered for its Establishment.

The article in the HERALD of Wednesday in favor of a botanical garden has met with a generous response from the people. Shrubs, trees, flowers and plants have been promised in abundance, and land and water for a garden. Dr. Briggs of Crescenta Canada, is first in the field with an offer of ten acres of land near the center of the settlement, below Michigan avenue, out of the fog, wind and frost, where a thousand kinds of shrubs, trees, plants and flowers of great value in medicine, in the arts and sciences, will be grown to perfection. This proposition of Dr. Briggs is a generous contribution of a value to-day of $1000, and shows that he appreciates the importance of the undertaking.

Judge Widney on his return from Hesperia heard of the project and states that the San Fernando Land and Water Company will donate a tract of ten acres if the society will locate on the lands of that company. Both places would be admirable for such a purpose. They possess the necessary soil, climate and elevation for the production of the choicest and most important plants and trees in the world.

California is now paying tribute of 1,000 per cent. on the product of plants and trees used in materia medica, all of which could be grown here and manufactured by pharmacists in this city, instead of obtaining them as now from Paris, London, New York and Philadelphia.

No single individual can well give attention to such a garden, but a company could do it wisely and well. The State and National governments are always ready to furnish all necessary assistance.

All the valuable trees of Asia and Oceania used for medicines, ornaments or varnishes could be obtained by consular agents. All trees, plants and roots used for dyes could be obtained from all parts of the world in the same way. Los Angeles county is the place to domesticate these valuable products of the forest, and it is quite time that the people know what plants and trees would flourish here and what will flourish better elsewhere.

Such a project will be started some time, why not do it now? The land should be selected and plowed and harrowed about three times this winter, and a hedge row planted around about it. A meeting should be called at an early day and steps taken to carry out the scheme of a great semi-tropical botanical garden that would prove a blessing to the nation in furnishing seeds, cuttings, plants, trees, flowers and valuable information, and show how to make the most of the glorious land that we possess.

COULD NOT AGREE.

They Cannot Decide Whether Lopez is a Forger or Not.

Diego Lopez, on the 1st of July, presented to Capt. Salisbury Haley a paper purporting to have been given him by Mrs. F. Mellas, a sister of Mrs. Presentacion B. de Haley, the wife of the Captain, asking for the sum of $10 to pay some of the wife's necessary expenses. It is claimed that Lopez had presented a great many orders, probably amounting in all to $200, to Captain Haley at different times, who had, however, all of them, believing them to be authentic. After having paid the $10 Capt. Haley became aware that that order and all the other ones did not come from Mrs. Mellas at all, nor had Lopez any authority to present them. Lopez was arrested on a complaint of the Captain on the 1st of July, and received money on the same day, but he denied all knowledge of it. In rebuttal the prosecution produced Ramon Young, who testified that he had himself written the order, under the dictation of Lopez, without being aware of its criminal nature, and that after it was completed, the defendant had taken it away. The jury, after being out five hours, were unable to agree. Judge Brunson then discharged the jury and allowed the defendant out on his former bonds to stand a second trial.

THE PROPOSED CHARTER.

Seemingly as Far off as It Ever Was Before.

A meeting of the Charter Committee was held last night at the Council chamber, at which were present Messrs. Knox, Stephen M. White, Brierly, D. McGarry and Mayor Spence. During the discussion which ensued between those present Hon. S. M. White said that, according to the census of 1880, which was the only official data upon which to base an estimate, Los Angeles pertains to the category of cities of the fourth class and could not be classed with Oakland at all. This, of course, ended all community of interest with the latter city. He favored an amendment to the State constitution, giving to the cities of over 10,000 inhabitants the right to elect boards of freeholders, and draft their own charters. Mr. Knox agreed that this would be a move in the right direction, and the Mayor favored it also. Mr. White was in favor of calling a committee meeting for Monday night, when they would have a short-hand reporter present and would draw up a charter for presentation to the Legislature. At the same time they would endeavor to procure the constitutional amendment before mentioned. The committee will meet again next Monday.

Not "a Dead Give Away."

The announcement in the HERALD yesterday that Lewis Bros., would give a Christmas toy to every one of the school children of the city between the hours of 4:30 and 5:30 P. M., attracted a crowd of youngsters such as was never before seen in Los Angeles not excepting the circus or the baby show. Some of the teachers accompanied the youngsters who passed into one door, received their presents and passed out at the other door. This exercise was so agreeable that many of the little fellows scooted their toys and passed in again to get another present. This game became so large and the crowd so great that three policemen were necessary to preserve order and keep the sidewalk in a passable condition. The result was that about three thousand children got a Christmas present in an hour, and yet Lewis Bros. had thousands more left on hand, as is shown by their advertisements in the HERALD.

An Artificial Boom.

The great registers printed for the recent elections reveal the fact that in the past two years there has been an addition of about 20,000 voters to the population of the State. The further fact in this connection is developed that almost all this new influx of people has been in the Sixth Congressional District, or the fourteen most southerly counties of the State.

It had been known for some time that the Southern portion of California was outstripping the Northern at a rapid pace, but the full truth has become apparent only from the registration. The great strides making here had aroused a good deal of jealousy in the north, and this feeling has been fanned to red heat by the publication of the full facts.

Looking at this matter, our friends north have been at some loss to account for the disagreeable facts. At last they thought they had found a good explanation. So much had been said about the profits of orange culture, and the poetic beauty of the citrus groves, that it seemed here must be the magnet of attraction to the new settlers. Thereupon was begun a great blowing of the citrus bazaar of Northern California. At Sacramento the second citrus fair for that section has just been closed, and at its close a conference was held whereat measures were adopted by which the northern end of the State is to be thoroughly advertised with a view of drawing immigration in that direction.

"A long pull and a strong pull,
 And a pull altogether, as they say at sea."
 Is to be taken, in order to divert some portion of the stream of settlers to that end of California.

The influx here is immense. So it is at San Diego. The growth of Tulare county last year was at a lightning pace. In this city during the present week, from 9 A. M. Monday morning at midnight of to-day, there will have arrived at least seventy pulman palace sleepers, in excursion trains. This is all in addition to the daily arrivals by the regular trains from all parts of the country. It is reported that this will keep up all winter.

People in the other end of California allege that all this is due solely to advertising our section. In this they are wrong. While the press of Southern California has been most intelligently and industriously engaged in making known the attractions of the sun-kissed south, it has all been rather a spontaneous matter than one of studied design. Editors here have proclaimed the productiveness of our soil, the profits of our orchards and vineyards, and the loveliness and healthfulness of our climate, because they could not keep the story locked up in their own breasts. It was the inspiration of the swelling theme which unlocked their lips to tell it. Their story was slow of winning credence in ears of those who had not seen the country, but once seen a new convert was made who became "Like Pythoness possessed,
 "Or le prophète moved to preach,"

And went forth to tell all who would hear of what they had seen.

There never has been any unhealthy, artificial stimulus given to immigration to this section. Each person who ever has been here a winter has gone back to send three or five friends out the next season. So the stream has swelled in a geometric ratio until we hardly know how to take care of all who come. It is a purely natural growth, and as such it will continue without interruption or diminution.

Thousands of these visitors have taken in the other parts of the State in their peregrinations in search of climate. It is remarkable that of the thousands of Grand Army people who visited us last summer, all of whom saw San Francisco, Sonoma, San Jose, etc., etc., none of them remember any name but Los Angeles. Whenever they speak in their old homes of that trip, the name of the city whose climate is Paradise enough for its angelic appellation, is the only one that rises to their lips.

Nor is this all. There our thousands of people here who removed from the northern part of the State after a residence there of years. All most daily such arrivals are noticed, and those who settle here remain.

Northern California has its advantages and attractions. It will fill up brim full at all points with a most desirable population. The settlers within her borders will be content, so far as prosperity and good health can make them so. The growth of population there will be rapid. But it will come second to Southern California in all respects. That region must not hope to compete with us in the rapidity of its growth. It must not expect to compete with us on our grounds of merit. As a climate for invalids and valetudinarians we will beat it all hollow. The romance of our orange groves cannot be filched from us, nor can any industry be built up to compete with it in profit.

The affluent who can pick and choose, who can pay $1,000 an acre for a choice patch to build thereon a beautiful home will come in preference to the world.

If Northern California will wisely lay hold of these facts, then wisely seek for what justly belongs to her, seek to secure such a class of settlers as she can hope to hold, and not aping the manners of her superiors, she may build up solid foundations and hope to see an era of real prosperity, with nothing of the bubble element in its character, an era that will be long and healthy in its progress.

SAN FRANCISCO has for some time past been quite successful in winning a national reputation as a place where human life is held in low esteem. The time method of shooting a man two or three times a day, or hacking a woman to pieces for the diurnal matutinal repast, has become too slow for the period. How much more in accordance with the spirit of the age, is the new departure of filling an old rotten hulk with half a hundred poor devils, made drunk no doubt by sail or boarding house runners, perhaps shanghaied outright to get the complement of men, and sending them on the edge of night half way out of the heads in the teeth of a flood tide, to be carried back on the rocks, and drowned like rats in a hole! This matter should be most carefully investigated, and the very letter and spirit of the law invoked for the punishment of the guilty. That city and others on the coast will be baptized in blood after the fashion of Cincinnati, unless human life is set at a higher value. Nor are the courts entirely to blame. Juries need to look as closely to their acts as any one, and some of our able editors who complacently write able editorials in commendation of these gentlemen in their box, who turn red-handed murderers loose on a long suffering community, and plead for the reversion of the verdicts of such juries as now and then do by chance, hold that the taking of human life for trivial causes is a crime. Gentlemen of the bench, you of the bar, you in the jury-box, and you of the facile but mercenary pen, one and all we must rise to the demand of the age, and to the civilization of a great people. Human life is not to be taken otherwise than as the last resort. The shooters and stabbers are for the most part unmanly cowards. There are men too peace loving and too brave to go armed like guerrillas, or robbers. These are the men to protect, rather than the armed ruffians of society.

SALE OF THE CITY HALL LOT.
 In view of the great importance of the matter to the city, the HERALD does a little free advertising this morning. At 10 A. M. of to-day the "City Hall lot" will be sold at public auction, on the ground, corner of Spring and Second streets. If any one of the fifteen men who are in the Council were selling this property for his own benefit, he would have had a two-column display advertisement of the fact in all the papers in the country for a month past. As the sale is for the benefit of the people the advertisement is a couple of squares, single column, for one time. The property fronts one hundred and twenty feet on Spring street, is in the very heart of the business portion of the city, and is dirt cheap at $1,000 a foot.

SATISFACTION will be found wherever there is intelligent conception of the Indian and of his character, in the bill to give them land in severalty. They will not hold it long. Once possessed of the reality they will sell it, spend the proceeds, and then go hungry. But this method will get the lands into the hands of others, who will improve them, and multiply happy homes. As an adjunct to the bill one should be passed making the Indian amenable in all respects to the laws of the land. Make him work, as his white brother has to work, and if he will not work otherwise, put him in a workhouse, put him to work on the roads, make him fulfill the law of life by some means. The man who will not work, and earn his own bread, should not be allowed to go idle and feed at the table of his industrious brother. If the "noble red" is a "man and a brother" let him live up to this high ideal. If he is not let him die the death of a wolf, and the other wild beasts of prey to whom he makes himself akin.

SOME time since the HERALD outlined a change impending in the military departments of the coast. It was urged in these columns at the time that Arizona and Southern California naturally belonged to the same division. It now seems that this change is to be made. General Miles will move his headquarters to this city, adding thereby most materially to its business, to its population and to its society. Old-timers remember with pleasure when a General and his staff were domiciled here. They recall later when Wilmington was headquarters, and they will heartily welcome back the day which places such desirable accessions to our society here again.

An Unreasonable Ledger.
 John Newton, a man who rents a room from Mrs. Daniels, who has furnished rooms on Mott alley, yesterday, whilst intoxicated, asked her for the loan of some money. Upon her refusal to accommodate him he became abusive and followed up his verbal attack with a formidable cobblestone, which he threw at the woman. She fled in dismay and called upon officer Smith for help. He, who arrested Newton and locked him up on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

TIRED OF IT.

The Board of Trade's Steps to Secure New Telegraphic Communication.

The Board of Trade of this city, on December 6th, passed certain resolutions which explain themselves. These were yesterday forwarded to San Francisco. As the resolutions and the letter of the Secretary of the Board are so directly to the point, they are appended without any comment:

LOS ANGELES BOARD OF TRADE,
Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 17, 1886.
S. R. R. E. G., Manager Postal Telegraph Company, San Francisco, Cal.
DEAR SIR: The enclosed resolutions, passed by the directors of this Board, are forwarded to you, and you are respectfully requested to lay them before the parties to whom they are addressed. The language of the resolutions, I believe, renders it unnecessary for me to enlarge upon the object they are intended to accomplish, as they practically indicate the end the directors of this Board have in view, viz: To call the attention of the Postal Telegraph Company to the opportunity which we believe is offered in this section of the State for the construction, maintenance and operation of a telegraph service in competition to the Western Union.

Without having any official figures at hand on which to base an absolute opinion, I believe we can safely assert that the Western Union is not only at the present time doing a very large business that pays well, but that it is constantly increasing.

There being no competitor in the field the business is operated at this point without that regard to the interests of the patronage that we believe essential to the cordial relations between the people and an institution that has become such a paramount necessity as a telegraph service. Our directors believe that the field and opportunity now offered to a competing line, worthy of an earnest investigation on the part of the company you represent, and trust that the resolutions enclosed will receive the attention at the hands of the officers of the Postal Telegraph system that we believe the subject merits.

A. M. LAWRENCE, Secretary.
ROOMS LOS ANGELES BOARD OF TRADE,
December 6th, 1886.

To the President and Directors Postal Telegraph Company (Mexico system).
GENTLEMEN—I am instructed to forward to you for your consideration the following resolutions, passed by the directors of this Board at a meeting held December 6th, 1886:

Whereas, it has been reported through the press that the Postal Telegraph Company were establishing lines in the State of Oregon, and contemplated erecting and operating lines in California; and

Whereas, if such action on the part of said company as our duly reported is true, the company should be encouraged to carry out its plans by the people of this state; and

Whereas, on the 24th day of April, 1886, the directors of this Board of Trade addressed and forwarded to the Postal Telegraph Company a letter, respectfully and earnestly in it set out in closing resolutions passed by the directors suggesting to the company certain improvements relative to better service, and asking for increased facilities for the transaction of the company's rapidly-increasing business at this point; and

Whereas, to said letter and resolutions no reply has ever been received, thereby indicating that the suggestions of the Board were of no value and that they would not receive any consideration at the hands of the company; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the directors of the Los Angeles Board of Trade that the secretary communicate with the officers of the Postal Telegraph Company (Mexico system) and call their attention to the large field open to them in Southern California, particularly in the city and county of Los Angeles, and request that the company investigate the matter, with the end in view of entering the field as a competitor of the Western Union, whose services in this city are nearly every respect as unsatisfactory to our mercantile interests.

Resolved, That if upon a careful investigation the question of erecting, maintaining and operating a competing telegraph service in this state, particularly in Southern California, then this Board of Trade will exert its influence to the utmost to secure for the company the support of the community.

Resolved, That the Secretary forward a copy of these resolutions to the company, and a copy be furnished the press for publication.

We hereby certify that the above is a true copy, taken from the minutes of the meeting of December 6, 1886.

E. L. WILSON, President.
A. M. LAWRENCE, Secretary.

FARINI'S CONCERT.

A Well-Filled House and a Fine Programme.

Signor Farini's anxiously awaited chamber concert took place last night at Mott's hall, before a large audience. The concert was opened by a duet on the piano by Gottschalk, entitled "La Gallina" (the Hen), with Messrs. Farini and Gottschalk at the piano. The music is original.

"Dreaming" (Wellings) was sung by Mrs. W. H. Gilbert and deservedly applauded. The fair cantatrice responded with an encore.

Miss Minnie Hance sang Rossini's delightful "Una Voce Poco Fa," in a charming and masterly manner. This beautiful young lady has a very just, clear and sympathetic contralto, and she is very talented.

Professor Farini followed in Wagner's "Oh, du mein holder Abendstern" and "Von Flutwegen" (porter song from "Martha"). The Signor has lost none of the talent which the lovers of music have learned to appreciate at his former concerts and operatic performances.

It was rather unfortunate that Mr. Gottschalk should have judged him for the task of taking the part of "Count de Luna" in the duet "Sem mi amor." His voice was certainly not at its best during the rendition of Verdi's melodious music. As to Miss Hance, she sang as charmingly and sympathetically as in her first selection.

Miss Mollie Adella Browne has a pleasing soprano, and rendered Donizetti's "O, Luce di Quest'Anima Lirica" most acceptably. She responded to an encore.

The octette and quartette chorus of "La Traviata" by Miss Leila Breed, Miss Minnie Hance, Messrs. J. Dreyer, O. T. Barker, F. C. Gottschalk, H. R. Maybin, C. L. Strango, H. G. Harding, M. S. Snook, W. C. Stone, J. C. Whitaker and Sig. A. Farini, was splendidly sung and heartily applauded.

At the conclusion of the part the Signor Farini was presented with a splendidly jeweled gold watch by Mr. R. L. Paulson, who made a very neat presentation speech in the name of himself and the Signor, being taken by surprise, could merely utter his thanks.

Part the second was opened with one of Schubert's Grand Concert waltzes, arranged for two pianos by Farini. It was brilliantly rendered by Messrs. Gottschalk and Farini.

Miss Leila Breed sang the Cavatina of "Eroani" in a masterly manner. This lady's voice is so well known and appreciated that to say she was at her best last night will be to those who were absent to regret it. Miss Breed was very much applauded and sang a ballad for an encore.

The duet of "I Pescatori" was sung very finely by Mrs. Gilbert and Signor Farini. They were followed by Mr. J. Dreyer, who sang "O, Night, Sweet Angel," pleasantly. Being recalled he responded with another of Abt's songs, "I Would that My Love," of Mendelssohn, was sung by Miss Browne and Mr. Strango. Owing to the indisposition of Messrs. Harding and Auerbach these gentlemen did not appear.

In consequence of Auerbach's absence Mr. Dreyer had to take Maurice's part in the scenes from the Trovatore, which he did well. Mrs. Gilbert sang the part of Leonora in "L'Amor e Morte" and the Miserere, splendidly.

This terminated the very successful concert. It is to be hoped that it will be followed by others.

The Brewery Fire.

As anticipated the fire in the big oil tank at the Philadelphia Brewery could not be put out and was allowed to exhaust itself. The damage will amount to about $1,500, including the burned oil, the two tanks, a furnace and several other improvements and $200 worth of bottles. The brewing malt in the cellars was not so seriously damaged as at first expected and the loss on that still is small. The cause of the fire is still as great a mystery as ever, but was probably caused by the coal oil gas coming in contact with a lighted substance. Joe Maier's face, hands and neck were severely scorched and he is laid up in bed in consequence of his wounds, but Dr. Kuhlitz yesterday stated that the genial senior member of the firm is in no danger.

Where is Myron?

Myron Mills, a waiter at the Pickett Villa, Bellevue Terrace, left there at 9 P. M. on December 15th, since which time he has been lost to view. Mills is reported as neat in dress, gentlemanly in manner, appearance and language—a Chesterfield of waiters. He is about 23 years of age, has blue eyes, curly hair, is of medium size and only had $3 with him when he disappeared. Mills' employer has no theory to account for the strange disappearance. The missing man had quite a sum of money coming to him for wages and left his trunk behind.

Every Woman Knows Them.

The human body is much like a good clock or watch in its movements; if one goes too slow or too fast, so long as the other, and bad time results; if one organ or set of organs work imperfectly, perversion of functional effort of all the organs is sure to follow. Hence it is that the numerous ailments which make woman's life miserable are the direct result of the abnormal action of the uterine system. For all that numerous class of symptoms—and every woman knows them—there is one unfailing remedy, Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," the favorite of the sex.

A Strong Endowment.

Is conferred upon that magnificent institution, the human system, by Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," that fortifies it against the encroachments of disease. It is the great blood purifier and alterative, and as a remedy for consumption, bronchitis and all diseases of a wasting nature. Its influence is rapid, efficacious and permanent. Sold everywhere.

Unnecessary Misery.

Probably as much misery comes from habitual constipation as from any defect of the functions of the body, and it is difficult to cure, for the reason that no one likes to take the medicines prescribed. Hamburg Binge were prepared to obviate this difficulty, and they will be found pleasant to the taste of women and children. At all druggists. J. J. Meek & Co., proprietors, S. F.

The Original.

Abilene Ointment is put up in two ounce tin boxes, and is an absolute cure for old sores, ulcers, burns, wounds, skin eruptions, hemorrhoids, and all skin diseases. With positively cure all kinds of piles. Ask for The Original Abilene Ointment, in two ounce boxes. Price, 25 cents. For sale by Preuss & Hancock, Druggists, 77 and 79 N. Spring street.

The Population of Los Angeles.

Is about forty thousand, and is the most rapidly increasing city in the United States. As the population increases, the demand for a reliable and accurate method of determining the population becomes more and more imperative. The only reliable and accurate method of determining the population is by the use of the census. The census is the only reliable and accurate method of determining the population.

Dyspepsia Cured.

Heartburn, indigestion or dyspepsia cured by that excellent remedy, "Mother's Balm." Never have we known it to fail. For sale by C. H. Hanson (successor to Preuss & Hancock), 77 and 79 N. Spring street.

Daniana Bitters makes the old, young and the weak strong and healthy. M. Levy & Co., wholesale liquor dealers.

NEWS NOTES.

The Monrovia Planet has changed hands, passing under the control of J. M. Harvey.

A seal skin sac, valued at $250, and an overcoat were stolen from room 3, at the Natick House, yesterday.

From tomorrow the management of the Second street cable road propose to charge an entrance fee of ten cents to their Park on Sundays.

Mr. Jones is making preparations to put up a large three-story brick building on New High street, directly back of the Herald building.

The Rev. Father Adam is slowly recovering from a serious attack of congestion of the lungs and asthma under the care of Dr. Ibarbondo.

The Southern Pacific construction trains now run from Newhall to the First, and 500 men are working to build the railroad bridge over the Sape.

His Honor Mayor Spence has commenced the work of grading and making the foundation for his mansion of granite on Monrovia Heights.

Captain Peters of the schooner Daisy Howe had one foot crushed between the steamer Los Angeles and the wharf at Ventura last week and has been taken to San Francisco for treatment.

Phoebe Weber, a little seven-year-old girl, who, from appearances, does not seem to be very bright, was found by Officer Huston on the corner of First and New High streets yesterday.

The electric fire alarm system went into operation last night at 6 o'clock. Each member of the police department is supplied with a key opening all the boxes.

Armory Hall will present a gala appearance on Christmas eve, it being the occasion of the grand military ball and exhibition drill given by companies A and C, Seventh infantry battalion.

Great preparation is being made for the drill, the members meeting nightly for practice. Major Russell's ability as a drill-master is so well known and appreciated as to be sufficient guarantee for the excellence of the performance.

PERSONAL MENTION.

F. Rowland, of Chicago, is at the Pico House.

Dr. H. C. Brandt, of Kansas City, is at the Grand Central.

Judge D. Freeman, of Centinela, was in the city yesterday.

M. Welch, Jr., of the Texas and Pacific Railway, is at the St. Elmo.

W. F. and J. A. Haason of Indianapolis, are at the Stevenson House.

Walter S. Maxwell and family returned yesterday from San Francisco.

J. F. Lord, of Louisville, Kentucky, is stopping at the Grand Central.

Mr. W. H. Carlson, of San Diego, passed here yesterday en route to San Francisco.

Col. John W. Darrington, editor and proprietor of the Yuma Sentinel, is paying Los Angeles a visit. The Colonel is in his usual robust health and beauty.

Mr. Chas. Stern, partner of Mr. L. J. Rose, in the wine business arrived here yesterday on a visit. He is accompanied by his son, and also by Mr. Rosenthal, agent of the firm in Chicago.

Frank Burns, ex-Sheriff of Los Angeles county, who has been for the past eight years a resident of Nebraska, has returned to Los Angeles to live. He cannot remain away from Los Angeles. The judge is warmly welcomed home by an army of old acquaintances.

Boro Radovich, a prominent Slavonian merchant of San Francisco and relative of J. L. Pavlovich, and friend of Jerry Hlich and J. Marietich, is visiting the city, and under the guidance of these well-known citizens, appears to be having a good time. He greatly admires Los Angeles.

Home of St. George Entertainment.

The entertainment of the Sons of St. George, Royal Oak Lodge No. 220 took place last night at Good Templars' Hall. There were present about 120 ladies and gentlemen, who had a very pleasant time. The entertainment was excellent, and among those who took part in it, more than acceptably, was Mr. Richardson, a late arrival from Australia. This gentleman is very versatile and talented, and his scope embraced elocution, comic and sentimental songs and instrumental music. The following was the programme:

Pianoforte duet, Mrs. Fox and Miss Lantz; vocal duet, Miss McKay and Dr. Gresham; vocal solo, "Two Grenadiers," Mr. Gardiner; reading, "Recollection of a Dream," Mr. Tonkin; vocal solo, "King's Highway," Mr. Stoneman; vocal solo, "Cherry Ripe," Miss Beaton; vocal duet, "Army and Navy," Mr. Williams and Dr. Gresham; reading, "The Great Seal," Mr. Fox; vocal solo, "The Old Brigade," Mr. Fox; song, "Keep From the Girls," Mr. Richardson; recitation, "Unbolted Door," Miss Richards; vocal solo, "Blue Alantian Mountains," Mr. Williams; vocal solo, "Fare of Orders Grey," E. Cochran; recitation, "Death of Our Boy," vocal solo, "Boys of the Old Brigade," Mr. Fox; song, "McSorley's Twins," Mr. Richardson; chorus, English and American, Messrs. Gardiner, Williams, Cox, Head, Richardson and Gresham.

There were plenty of refreshments and the entertainment concluded with a dance.

The Levee Lumber.

The lumber for the levee between May and First street has arrived at San Pedro and will be brought to the city to-day. A pile driver is ready for work and soon there will be a continuous levee between the L. A. & S. G. V. E. R. and the L. A. & Santa Monica railway, along the west bank of the river and the property of that side protected from overflow.

A Long Suit Ended.

The Supreme Court of the United States has rendered a decision affirming the judgment of the Supreme Court of California in the case of McCreey vs. Fuller, in favor of the defendant. The suit was about the title to a piece of State land below the city and has been before the courts since 1868. This decision affirms the title of the State in the land.

The First Oranges.

It is remarkable that the shipment of oranges to the east has begun at this early day in the season. The S. P. Co. has already forwarded half a score of cars to different points east of the river. The S. P. Co. sent forward a carload yesterday morning. This is very early work.

WEATHER REPORTS.

Why Los Angeles Cannot Be Supplied With Them.
